

THANK YOU FOR IGNITING CURIOSITY

PACIFIC SCIENCE CENTER

Dear Friends,

Thank you for your commitment to curiosity and for increasing access to science in our community. Because of your investments, more than 1 million people were able to engage with PacSci in our 2018—2019 fiscal year. Whether onsite for a Curiosity Expo, at a local school for a Science On Wheels visit, or through a Camps for Curious Mind scholarship, you've helped share hands-on science with all kinds of kids and all kinds of families.

In the past year we launched an expansion of our Discovery Corps youth development program, only possible with support from donors like you. Students from the program spoke to over 675 attendees at the largest-to-date Foundations of Science Breakfast earlier this spring. As part of our commitment to break down barriers for Girls and Women in STEM, there were over 15 offerings this summer for Girls Only camps. And your generosity helped bring science to life for 60,000 students from Title I schools.

Your gifts make this momentum possible each day at PacSci. Together we are expanding access to science, and we appreciate and we look forward to your continued partnership. Thank you for fueling a passion for discovery, experimentation, and critical thinking.

In gratitude,

Will Daugherty
